INTRODUCTION

Through a consistent and cohesive visual identity, Holy Cross College shows the world who we are:

SCHOLARS, CITIZENS, LEADERS, AND DISCIPLES

And what our purpose is:

to serve the common good by educating and forming global citizens with the competence to see and the courage to act.

These guidelines will help you correctly apply the College's colors, logos, fonts, and imagery in your work, ensuring a consistent brand presence across all platforms in order to strengthen and protect the message and identity of the College.

The elements of the Holy Cross College identity have been carefully crafted. Any attempt to recreate the art, letter-forms, spacing or styling of the identity may result in inconsistencies that compromise the integrity of our message.

If you need further instruction regarding the visual identity or need assistance in developing your communications materials, please consult the Office of Communications.
The primary colors for Holy Cross College are maroon and gray. The primary colors may not be altered.

The secondary colors (jade, beige, and dove gray) may be used to accent the main colors.

When appropriate, those alternate colors may be used in lighter tints to compliment primary colors.

The tertiary colors, pumpkin and cobalt blue should be used sparingly.

FONTS AND USAGE GUIDELINES

Attention to typeface is also crucial to the visual continuity of the Holy Cross College identity. Proper implementation of fonts ensures the consistency of design and messages, as well as the legibility of type across all communications.

PRIMARY SERIF FONT

The primary font is the Berkeley font family, previously known as “California Old Style.” Berkeley was originally designed by Frederic W. Goudy in 1938 for the University of California Press in Berkeley. It is a classic serif font with uniquely elongated descenders and a light, inviting style.

When Berkeley is not available, Goudy Old Style or Times may be used.

PRIMARY SANS SERIF FONT
Holy Cross College uses the Myriad font family. Both readable and accessible, the Myriad family involves Greek and Cyrillic glyphs with old style characters. It is a clean and easily read sans serif font designed by Carol Twombly and Robert Slimbach in the early '90s.

When Myriad Pro is not available, Arial may be used as an alternative.

LOGOS

THE LOGOMARK
The cross and anchors, along with the wordmark, are used together as the College’s primary, institutional logomark. It consists of a wordmark, (the College’s title), appearing in Berkeley Medium typeface, followed by the location “at Notre Dame, Indiana”. This distinction is not included merely as a locator, but rather as an indication of the rich tri-campus community of which the College is a member. The locator of “at Notre Dame, Indiana” also assists in setting our institution apart from several others for which we may be mistaken.

ACCEPTABLE

HOLY CROSS COLLEGE
at Notre Dame, Indiana

Use this stacked logo on all official Holy Cross College communications, whether internal or external. The logomark should serve as the academic mark for the College. It should be used with all academic communications. This logomark should be used on the College’s program lockups.

If the Holy Cross Logo needs to be printed on a color, the “reverse” or “white” version is to be used.

ACCEPTABLE

NOT ACCEPTABLE

Refer to the College with its full title and with consideration for the audience’s familiarity with the institution.

In written correspondence, the full title, “Holy Cross College” should be used on the first mention and can be followed by “Holy Cross” or “the College.”

Never refer in written correspondence to the College as “HCC.”

When abbreviated, as is the case in the athletics monogram, use “HC.”

LOGOS

WORDMARK
While the College name is typically presented within the logomark, there are times when it may be used alone, typically when there is insufficient space to accommodate the full logomark. The wordmark may also be used alone when it appears on more formal printed materials, event banners, or specialty items.

The wordmark may be presented vertically stacked in three lines or in a horizontal version. The use of vertical or horizontal presentations is dictated by available space.

Whenever the wordmark is used, it is essential that the name of the College be followed by, “at Notre Dame, Indiana.”

LOGO
The Cross and Anchors serve as the logo for the College. The cross, rooted by anchors reflects the motto of the Holy Cross order, “Ave Crux, Spes Unica,” or “Hail the Cross, Our Only Hope.”

Generally, it should appear with the wordmark. It may be used as a stand-alone symbol for the College when space is limited or when the audience is familiar with Holy Cross College.

ACCEPTABLE

If the Holy Cross Logo needs to be printed on a color, the “reverse” or “white” version is to be used.

NOT ACCEPTABLE

THE LANGUAGE

SCHOLAR | CITIZEN | LEADER | DISCIPLE

“These four titles name well the goals of a liberal arts education, providing our students with the tools they need to be productive and flourishing members of our community in this life—and the next.”
—Reverend David T. Tyson, C.S.C., President, Holy Cross College

More than a tagline, these four identities represent the College’s students and graduates and the rich intellectual heritage that sets them apart in the world.

All four identities naturally share some characteristics, but this arrangement best embraces the transition into the new core curriculum’s four sections under Father Tyson’s leadership.

When listed, do not rearrange the order of the four identities:

Correct: SCHOLAR, CITIZEN, LEADER, DISCIPLE
Incorrect: SCHOLAR, LEADER, CITIZEN, DISCIPLE

These titles may be made plural: SCHOLARS, CITIZENS, LEADERS, DISCIPLES

In Spanish: Académico, Comunitario, Líder, Discípulo

SCHOLARS:
curious | cultured | grounded | dedicated | ambitious | global | conscious
informed | knowledgeable | academic | intellectual | truth | mindful | insightful

CITIZENS:
universal | welcoming | Catholic | courageous | compassionate | devoted
generous | spirited | competent | responsive

LEADERS:
courageous | transformative | bold | honest | conscientious | intellectual
impassioned | formed | vocational | considerate | worthy
